

What is Youth Apostles?

Youth Apostles is a community of Catholic men dedicated to growing in our love for Christ and to bringing Him to the youth we serve. We have single men, married men, Consecrated laymen, and Consecrated priests in our community. We understand that bringing young people to Jesus is one of the most important challenges facing the Church today. We strive to answer the call to bring Christ to the youth wherever they are. We are present in parishes, college campuses, grade schools, high schools, and after-school programs. However, we go to where they hang out so that we can build relationships with them and help them encounter Jesus.

We are blessed with married members that serve the youth and are beautiful witnesses of the values of family life. Some of our married members coordinate youth or campus ministry programs or teach in public and Catholic schools as their full-time job. Others have secular jobs and then volunteer in our youth or campus ministry programs. Their families bless our Consecrated laymen and Consecrated priests by giving them extended families. (To have more married men join our community is always a joy!)

The single members of our community have the great blessing of seeing the married members as well as the Consecrated laymen and Consecrated priests live out their vocations. Numerous members have shared how great it is to have this opportunity to discern their vocation in a place where they could see all these vocations lived out by their brothers. The single men often come into the community at a young age and bring the excitement, joy, and ideals of youth to community and ministry.

The Consecrated laymen and Consecrated priests in Youth Apostles devote all their energies to the love and service of God's Kingdom, especially to God's little ones. Our Consecrated brothers strive to be holy, to seek intimacy with God through intense prayer, to do the will of the Father, and to dedicate their lives to become another Christ in today's world for youth. The Consecrated are a blessing to our married members and their families. We need more Consecrated laymen and Consecrated priests in our community to share the joy of Christ with the youth.

Is Jesus calling you to dedicate your apostolic energies to the humble service of our youth who are so often forgotten in our world today? Is He calling you to explore our community of Youth Apostles?
